NEW PORTS OF CALL

KUMAMOTO (YATSUSHIRO), JAPAN

In a land of fairy-tale castles, Kumamoto is home to one of Japan's three greatest. After recovering from siege and fire in 1877, Kumamoto Castle sustained its greatest damage in the earthquake of 2016 – ironic given the castle is known for its dark obsidian color resembling Japan's volcanic landscape. Repairs are ongoing but in some ways further emphasize the castle's astounding scale. In places where the massive, once impenetrable walls have crumbled, their graceful curves are being rebuilt like a puzzle, stone by stone. Kato Shrine gives you an excellent view of the elegant black towers, turrets and walls that remain intact. While the castle recalls a violent history, it is enveloped by serene natural beauty. A network of underground springs has made Kumamoto a lush oasis of verdant parks and natural lakes. Reputed for its pristine nature, the city boasts drinking water so clean it will purify your soul.

MARÉ ISLAND, NEW CALEDONIA

Given its proximity to other popular islands of New Caledonia, it is truly remarkable that Maré Island remains so untouched by the outside world. Ancient tectonic forces lifted this coral atoll above the sea, creating a striking landscape where lush forests suddenly plummet into limestone caves encircling natural freshwater pools. Swaying palms and feathery pines adorn ragged cliffs that soar into the air and then plunge into grottoes and hidden lagoons. White swaths of sand lie along waters that appear the brightest shade of turquoise from a distance, but upon approach become so clear as to almost disappear. In this pristine paradise, the arrival of a ship is a major event, and the island's small population will welcome you with traditional songs and impromptu markets offering local wares. Embrace their friendliness and learn where to find the most scenic spots on the island.

MIYAZAKI (ABURATSU), JAPAN

A seaside resort town, Miyazaki enjoys more sunshine than any other Japanese city. Those who love sand and surf appreciate the miles of coastline and mild climate that create excellent beachgoing and surfing conditions. If you prefer the mountains, verdant ranges rise inland, where you might plan a day trip to the hot springs of Kirishima, the gorge of Takachiho or the Aya Teruha pedestrian bridge suspended nearly 500 feet above a forested valley. Natural wonders are also found in the unique geology of peaceful Aoshima Island and in shrines to ancient gods tucked in seaside caves and scenic parklands. The city has fascinating museums and abundant shopping. Visit a distillery to learn the process of making shochu, a popular Japanese spirit distilled from many different sources, such as sweet potatoes, rice or barley.

MONTEREY, CALIFORNIA

The rugged cliffs, lush cypress and cerulean waters of the Monterey Peninsula are so stunningly beautiful that one of the area's most famous attractions is simply a 17-mile drive along the coast. Perched on these scenic shores, the town of Monterey has long inspired artists and authors alike. Recalling the city's heyday as a sardine canning capital, Ocean View Boulevard was renamed Cannery Row after John Steinbeck's novel by that name immortalized the street. Now the fishing shacks along the waterfront have been refurbished into antique shops and restaurants, and one former cannery house is a world-renowned aquarium. Spend the day picking the best clam chowder on Fisherman's Wharf, but you should also have a salad. The cold waters of the offshore Blue Grand Canyon, twice the depth of its namesake, create a uniquely temperate climate that harvests the freshest produce in the country, as well as distinctive wines.

OARAI, JAPAN

Known for long stretches of pristine beach, a large aquarium and an oceanfront shrine, the seaside town of Oarai entices you with all things coastal. Try fresh seafood, such as a rice bowl with raw sardines served with grated ginger and soy sauce. Caught just offshore, the young sardines must be eaten the same day as they are caught, and thus they draw gourmets from around Japan to Oarai. A short jaunt inland to Mito would also be worthwhile, as it is home to one of Japan's three great gardens, Kairakuen. Opened in 1842 by the local lord Tokugawa Nariaki, the garden is famous for its more than 3,000 plum trees, which herald the arrival of spring when they bloom from late February through March.

OSAKA, JAPAN

Prior to the 8th century, the capital of Japan moved with each new emperor and Osaka was one of those earliest capitals. Osaka then grew into a commercial center of the rice trade and became known as "the nation's kitchen," a moniker now applied because of the city's reputation for cuisine so good that, as the saying goes, people go broke buying it. A vibrant arts culture also developed in the 17th century, including the famous kabuki and bunraku theaters that can still be seen today. Devastated during World War II, Osaka reemerged as a maze of bridges and skyscrapers flanking a moated castle that stands in the city center as a reminder of a regal past. The skyline gains further allure from the illumination of several Ferris wheels, unique status symbols of modern Japanese cities.

PETROPAVLOVSK-KAMCHATSKY, RUSSIA

Accessible only by air or sea, the remote city of Petropavlovsk-Kamchatsky is surrounded by what UNESCO describes as "one of the most outstanding volcanic regions in the world." The snowcapped peaks of Koryak and Avacha loom directly behind the city, and the terrain is so mountainous that one cannot see the horizon from any point in town. Admire one of Russia's most majestic landscapes from any number of vantage points: a cruise through the bay, an ATV excursion to the base of an active volcano, a challenging summit hike or a helicopter ride. While rugged natural beauty may be the biggest draw, the town also holds historical significance as a military outpost and the region's capital. Some worthwhile museums and monuments combine to tell the story of Russia's most easterly city, from its founding by Vitus Bering through the Crimean War and the Soviet era.

PHILLIP ISLAND (RHYLL), AUSTRALIA

Phillip Island boasts wide sandy beaches, spectacular coastal scenery, excellent surfing and a world-famous Grand Prix circuit. However, its biggest attraction measures about one foot tall and weighs just two or three pounds. The island is home to thousands of little penguins, endearing not only as the smallest penguins on the planet but also for their unique blue coloring. Each day as the sun sets, the tiny birds return from a long day of fishing at sea and waddle up the beaches to the safety of their burrows. Affectionately known as the Penguin Parade, this magical scene has enchanted visitors since 1920. An array of wildlife beyond the penguins also can be observed here, including whales, koalas and Australia's largest fur seal colony. Those not fond of furry friends might visit the National Vietnam Veterans Museum, take a stroll on the seaside boardwalk, or check out a local brewery or winery.

SAN SEBASTIÁN DE LA GOMERA, CANARY ISLANDS

To experience the quieter side of the Canaries untouched by the tourist trade, call on the unspoiled island of La Gomera. Here the only things more ancient than the cultural traditions are the native laurel forests that blanket the volcanic peaks rising into the clouds. Plunging ravines disappear into a lush green carpet fed by gurgling streams, and craggy outcrops rise into an ever-present shroud of mist that nurtures the luxuriant highlands, lending a magical aura. So isolating was this rugged terrain that native inhabitants developed a language of whistling to communicate across the miles. The language is preserved today, so ask for a demonstration in a local restaurant in San Sebastián de la Gomera, the coastal town that descends from the hills to the black sand beaches below. The town also celebrates less ancient history, as this was the final stop of Christopher Columbus before he sailed for the Americas.

SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA

Known as the American Riviera, the enchanting town of Santa Barbara is nestled between the picturesque coastline of its southern shores and the verdant Santa Ynez Mountains rising steeply to the north. The warm sunshine of a Mediterranean climate illuminates the red-tiled roofs and adobe façades of the town's Spanish Colonial architecture, including the grand Old Mission founded by the first Spanish settlers in the 18th century. Santa Barbara may be best enjoyed with a pleasant stroll, be it through Shoreline Park, along Stearns Wharf or down hip State Street. Renowned art and history museums, wine-tasting rooms, seaside cafés and charming boutiques provide endless entertainment in town, while just over the mountains in the fertile Santa Ynez Valley, you can tour several award-winning wineries.

EXTENDED
journneys

TRAVEL FAR AND WIDE

If you yearn to explore farther, deeper and longer, our Extended Journeys fulfill that desire with voyages that cross continents, reveal distant cultures and linger in the world's most magnificent destinations. Sail from Miami through the Panama Canal and along the Pacific Riviera, but don't stop there. Continue on to the pristine islands of Hawaii and French Polynesia, or head south to Chile, around Cape Horn and all the way to Rio de Janeiro. If Asia beckons, begin your journey amidst the Japanese cherry blossoms and then sail to the mainland for overnight stays in Shanghai and Saigon. For those seeking pure serenity, let your cares wash away on the idyllic beaches of the Caribbean as you enjoy leisurely weeks of island hopping complemented by an overnight in historic Havana.

AROUND THE WORLD IN 180 DAYS

THE WORLD LESS TRAVELED

A globe-roaming voyage is the grandest of prized travel experiences, and for the very first time the itinerary artisans of Oceania Cruises have woven together Alaska, Mexico, South America, Asia, and Africa into a magnificent worldwide tapestry that crosses the equator a remarkable four times. Watch whales cavort in Alaska's glacial bays, among Cabo San Lucas' rock formations and in the quiet majesty of the Chilean Fjords. Feast with gauchos in Patagonia, stroll the haunting streets of Beijing's Forbidden City, and soar above Peru's ancient Nazca Lines. Sail under the Golden Gate Bridge, through the Panama Canal, along Alaska's exquisite Inside Passage, around the tips of both Africa and South America, and through the limestone karsts of Vietnam's Ha Long Bay. Search for rhinos, hippos and giraffes in game reserves in Africa, and with nine ports of call in Japan, discover the enduring legacy of the samurai. From the serpentine Great Wall of China and transcendent Machu Picchu to the dazzling Volcanoes of Kamchatka and the solemn Hiroshima Peace Memorial, an extraordinary 67 UNESCO World Heritage sites illuminate your route.

EXCLUSIVE SHORESIDE EVENTS

LA BAGUALA ESTANCIA RETREAT & LUNCHEON

March 5, 2020 | Montevideo, Uruguay
Experience one of the oldest estancias in Uruguay, the legendary La Baguala. This historical estancia invites you to immerse yourself in the natural beauty of Uruguay. Locals donning traditional late 19th-century costumes welcome you, accompanied by Uruguayan creole guitars and gauchos' payadas, which are improvised musical dialogues. Explore the farmhouse or take a cart ride around the property. Later savor a delicious barbecue lunch featuring local specialties. Round out the afternoon with a series of dance performances including Afro-Uruguayan, candombe, folk, malambo, milonga and tango, which showcase the rich heritage of the country.

THE RESERVE AT THE TAJ CAPE TOWN DINNER

April 8, 2020 | Cape Town, South Africa
Originally the headquarters of the early 20th-century South African Reserve Bank and adjacent Temple Chambers, Taj Cape Town now constitutes a luxurious five-star hotel and remains one of the city's most iconic buildings. The exquisitely revitalized property is situated in the historic heart of South Africa's Mother City, where slaves, colonialists, farmers, politicians, scholars and Nobel laureates shaped the history of South Africa. Join fellow World Cruisers at the Taj Cape Town hotel for an elegant dinner, as local entertainers serenade you with traditional South African music.

BURMESE MONK DONATION CEREMONY

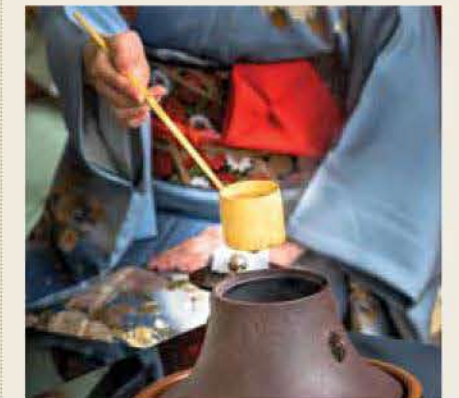

May 1, 2020 | Rangoon, Burma
Enjoy a once-in-a-lifetime experience by taking part in the local tradition of a donation ceremony in Rangoon, which positively impacts thousands. During each Burma male's lifetime, he is expected to spend time serving as a monk to learn the ways of Buddhism. In support of their devout dedication, many families and businesses in Burma make donations to monasteries. Our special contribution will be donated to more than 200 robed monks during a ceremony at a monastery, where you will join over 100 nearby villagers that will attend. After the ceremony, enjoy refreshments and performances by traditional dancers and music as celebration of the generosity of the occasion.

TRADITIONAL CANTONESE OPERA EXPERIENCE

May 23, 2020 | Hong Kong, China
An emblem of Chinese culture originating in southern China's Guangdong Province, Cantonese opera is a traditional Chinese art form encompassing music, singing, martial arts, acrobatics and acting. Many of the plots are based on Chinese history and famous Chinese classics and myths. Before education was widespread in China, Cantonese opera was called upon not only for entertainment, but to teach morals and noble lessons as well. The culture, virtues and philosophies of the Chinese people are reflected in these plays. Witness a wonderful performance of this tradition featuring actors in colorful costumes and elaborate makeup. After the performances, enjoy delectable canapés and refreshments.

HOT SPRINGS & JAPANESE CULINARY IMMERSION

June 8, 2020 | Kyoto (Kobe), Japan
A famed hot spring town in Kobe, Arima Onsen has been a retreat catering to emperors, samurais and great minds alike for over 1,000 years. As you stroll the old hot spring district, you will notice the unique blend of ancient Japanese tradition and Western culture. Experience a few of the nine different hot springs at Arima Onsen Gekkoen, a Japanese-style inn located at the bottom of Mount Ochibayama, where two of the buildings will be reserved exclusively for you. Enjoy an array of cultural and culinary activities, such as a traditional Geisha performance, a matcha tea ceremony, a delicious Kobe beef tasting and a sake tasting. An artful kaiseki-style dinner, once reserved for royalty and nobility, crowns your memorable evening.

Spacious enough for private in-suite dining, the living area features a refrigerated mini-bar and vanity desk, and the granite-clad bathroom is large enough for an indulgent full-size bathtub/shower, or a walk-in shower on board Sirena. Relax on the beautifully furnished private teak veranda.

MARINA & RIVIERA

VS | Vista Suite

Given their lavish interior design by Dakota Jackson and premier location overlooking the bow of the ship, the eight Vista Suites are in high demand. These 1,200- to 1,500-square-foot suites include access to the exclusive Executive Lounge as well as every imaginable amenity, such as a large walk-in closet, king-size bed, second bathroom for guests, indoor and outdoor whirlpool spas and your own private fitness room.

REGATTA, INSIGNIA, NAUTICA & SIRENA

VS | Vista Suite

Named for their sweeping views over the ship's bow, the four Vista Suites each sprawl over 786 square feet. Every imaginable comfort is here, including a second bathroom for guests as well as a master bathroom designed in onyx and granite with a luxurious shower. Relax on the private teak veranda, listen to music in enhanced surround sound or watch a DVD on one of two flat-screen televisions. Access the Internet wirelessly on the provided laptop computer or iPad®.

MARINA & RIVIERA

PH1 | PH2 | PH3 | Penthouse Suite

The elegant Penthouse Suites rival any world-class five-star hotel for comfort and beauty. Their design is ingenious, maximizing the generous 420 square feet of space and featuring a dining table, separate seating area, full-size bathtub/shower and separate shower, walk-in closet and private veranda. Enjoy exclusive card-only access to the private Executive Lounge and the services of a dedicated concierge.

Concierge Level Staterooms and Penthouse Suites will offer a choice between BVLGARI Blue Tea (Thé Bleu) and Green Tea (Thé Vert). Owner's, Vista and Oceania Suites will offer the additional selections of White Tea (Thé Blanc) and Red Tea (Thé Rouge) for the Hotel Gift Collection.

Staterooms

STATEROOMS OF UNRIVALED ELEGANCE | Space is perhaps the ultimate luxury, and that is something all of our accommodations provide in lavish excess. They are also defined by their elegance, which you can see in the tasteful furnishings of your stateroom and sense in the serene ambiance. This is a private world designed around your comfort, a bastion of quietude that naturally encourages relaxation. Finely appointed, many staterooms feature an oversized marble and granite-clad bathroom with tub and separate shower. You will appreciate the refrigerated mini-bar, copious closet and drawer space and, of course, our revolutionary Prestige Tranquility Bed, a luxury our guests consistently describe as heavenly.

Taste

While every aspect of the Oceania Cruises experience is a study in gracious understatement, our passion for serving The Finest Cuisine at Sea™ is anything but. Our commitment to culinary excellence shines from beginning to end, from sourcing premium artisanal ingredients from around the world to our spacious state-of-the-art galleys and our distinguished chefs who are continually inspired by Master Chef Jacques Pépin, our Executive Culinary Director. Throughout your magnificent journey, you are certain to experience the luxury of exquisite cuisine aboard Oceania Cruises regardless of where you may dine or what you choose to order.

THE ESSENTIAL INGREDIENTS INSIDE OUR KITCHEN

- An unparalleled commitment to sourcing only the finest ingredients worldwide
- Talented and innovative chefs selected from the world's best restaurants
- Impressive ratio of culinary staff to guests, enabling each dish to be created à la minute
- Spacious galleys featuring the finest culinary equipment typically found in Michelin-starred restaurants

THE FINEST CUISINE AT SEA™

Our superb gourmet restaurants serve delectable dishes created à la minute and offer a remarkable array of choices, from Continental cuisine to authentic Italian to classic steakhouse fare. Every restaurant on board is complimentary and features open seating so you may dine wherever and whenever suits your taste and schedule. Enjoy dinner for two or a gathering with newfound friends, knowing that the experience is certain to be extraordinary.

THE GRAND DINING ROOM

An Elegant Setting

The Grand Dining Room is a study in stateliness, a tribute to the spirit of Europe's marquee five-star hotel restaurants that inspired its dignified yet convivial ambiance. Handsomely decorated in rich woods, designer tapestry fabrics and oversized armchairs, the expansive dining area exudes classic splendor. This signature dining experience has always offered a bevy of delicious Continental dishes, and now a fresh and new array of options brings you even more exciting choices, as well as an incredible spectrum of global flavors and an all-new Executive Chef's Tasting Menu. As variety is essential to your satisfaction, menus change daily with an expansive choice of at least 10 appetizers, soups and salads and 10 dinner entrées, along with healthy options such as Canyon Ranch Spa Cuisine and extensive gourmet vegetarian and vegan dishes.

THE BISTRO

French for the Afternoon

Inspired by the family recipes of our Executive Culinary Director, Jacques Pépin, The Bistro invites you to enjoy quintessential French dishes as well as lunchtime favorites and regional specialties during lunch in The Grand Dining Room. The menu features some of Jacques' favorite bistro-style dishes like the crisp salade niçoise and a warm croque-monsieur as well as a rich range of global flavors with Taste of the World selections from Cuba, Mexico, Scandinavia, Italy, Thailand, Morocco and beyond. Daily specials offer even more choices and opportunities to savor a new and different dish or a time-honored classic you crave. Bon appétit!

TERRACE CAFÉ

Dine indoors or alfresco as the menu of international dishes changes daily. Savor grilled lobster tails, jumbo shrimp, hand-cut steaks and chops, a sushi bar and fresh pastas.

WAVES GRILL

Chefs grill gourmet burgers and succulent seafood to order, with sides including fresh salads and hand-cut truffle fries. For dessert try a creamy homemade gelato or a thick hand-dipped milkshake.

HORIZONS

Teatime is a daily event at four o'clock in the afternoon. With a classical string quartet softly playing, four-tiered carts elegantly display finger sandwiches, petits fours, scones, desserts and a selection of artisanal teas.

BARISTAS

Enjoy complimentary illy® espressos, cappuccinos and lattes prepared by our master baristas, as well as delicious pastries and homemade biscotti throughout the day.

THE FINEST CUISINE AT SEA™

TOSCANA*

Authentic Italian

Toscana means Tuscan, and just as Tuscan cuisine evolved from rich family traditions, many of our recipes originated with the mothers and grandmothers of our own Italian culinary staff. Presented on elegant, custom-designed Versace china, masterfully prepared dishes exemplify the essence of Tuscany and celebrate Italy's culinary passion.

Perhaps the evening begins with the octopus carpaccio with champagne vinaigrette or the artichoke and parmesan cheese timbale with black truffle sauce. Classic dishes from other regions of Northern Italy are featured as well, such as the minestrone alla Genovese, lasagna al forno alla Bolognese and osso buco alla Milanese.

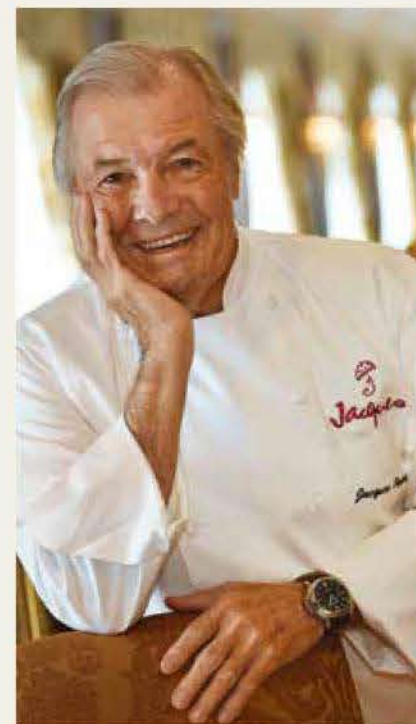

POLO GRILL*

A Classic Steakhouse

Polo Grill embodies all the elements of a classic steakhouse, expressing them with timeless reverence. Mindful of tradition, the decor features crisp, white linen tablecloths, dark wood furnishings and supple, high-back, burgundy leather chairs.

Each course stands as the very definition of time-honored favorites, most notably the beef dishes, all of which are certified Black Angus USDA Prime and dry aged to enhance tenderness and flavor. Succulent seafood dishes such as grilled swordfish and whole Maine lobster gratinée are also classics in their own right. The classic Caesar salad, too, is prepared according to tradition, tableside and with gusto.

JACQUES*

A Passion for French Cuisine

Exquisitely decorated with heirloom antiques, pickled wood furnishings and art from Jacques Pépin's personal collection, Jacques was modeled after a Parisian bistro. Comfortable and eclectic, the ambiance is pure French, as is the cosmopolitan yet wonderfully embraceable cuisine.

Luscious aromas waft from the gleaming show rotisserie, where chicken, duck, pork, beef and veal roasts slowly turn. Each dish is a classic, ingeniously reinterpreted by Master Chef Pépin. Rotisserie-roasted chicken falls off the bone, bursting with flavor, while his sea bass filet pairs exquisitely with beurre blanc.

RED GINGER*

Bold Asian Cuisine

With a nod to feng shui, Red Ginger radiates harmony and tranquility. The interior simply glows with ebony woods, a soothing waterfall wall and striking, modern Asian artworks. To complement the stunning decor, Red Ginger's chefs have created contemporary interpretations of Asian classics.

Begin with a salad of spicy roast duck and watermelon with cashews, mint and Thai basil. Savor a Malaysian beef penang with coconut rice and paratha roti. Or try Thai vegetable curry with sweet potatoes, aubergine, mushrooms and basil in green curry sauce. In Red Ginger, the gustatory pleasures are as striking as the visual ones.

TUSCAN STEAK*

Inspired by Polo Grill & Toscana

Tuscan Steak, our signature specialty restaurant on board Sirena, exudes the warmth and Italian flair of Toscana while preserving the classic appeal of Polo Grill. Featuring glossy wood paneling with platinum and silver accents, the elegantly appointed interior of Tuscan Steak aptly reflects its modern take on the traditional steakhouse.

The innovative and diverse menu features the best of both worlds, so you can savor filet mignon and our signature Tuscan porterhouse cooked to perfection, along with rustic Italian favorites such as hand-rolled potato gnocchi. Seafood lovers will delight in savory dishes such as steamed whole Maine lobster and linguine cioppino.

CULINARY DELIGHTS IN A MORE PRIVATE SETTING

LA RESERVE BY WINE SPECTATOR

Epicureans & Wine Connoisseurs

Guests will enjoy wine seminars and tastings as well as gourmet dinners pairing fine wines with delectable courses such as bay scallop teriyaki seared on riverstone, hoisin sautéed duck foie gras, and seared kobe beef sous vide with valrhona sauce. Our all-new menu, La Cuisine Bourgeoise by Master Chef and Executive Culinary Director Jacques Pépin, celebrates the rituals of the table and pairs exquisite wines with time-honored dishes such as soufflé de homard plaza athénée and filet de bœuf rôti richelieu.

PRIVÉE

A Private Party

For the ultimate in exclusivity, Privée may be reserved for the evening for parties of up to 10 guests, who will enjoy the full menu selection from Polo Grill, Toscana or both.

Aomori

NEW PORTS OF CALL

As Destination Specialists, the experts at Oceania Cruises bring you the treasures of the world in a way that no one else can. Calling on over 400 spectacular ports around the globe, our voyages invite you to discover the world as you've always dreamed.

ALBANY, AUSTRALIA

Western Australia's oldest colonial settlement, Albany holds not only great historical significance but also immense natural beauty. Founded in 1826 as a British military outpost, the town evolved into a provisioning port for ships, a departure point for Australian troops bound for World War I, and eventually a base for the whaling industry. History buffs will be intrigued by sites such as the Anglican church, town hall, restored gaol and a one-of-a-kind whaling station museum, while the dramatic scenery of the rugged coastline will astound anyone fortunate enough to sail into Princess Royal Harbour. Known as Ataturk Entrance, the channel accessing the harbor from King George Sound is quite narrow, with forested peaks rising on either side from the rocky shores and sweeping white beaches.

AOMORI, JAPAN

Each change of season brings fresh new beauty to the coastal city of Aomori. The blush of cherry blossoms greets you in spring, while in winter the forests of the surrounding mountains are so heavily laden with snow that the trees appear to be giant white beasts. The port is dominated by Aomori Bay Bridge, offering great views of both the city and the harbor and mirroring the striking triangular design of the Aomori Prefecture Tourist Center. The skyline's contemporary angles result from the city's destruction during World War II and rebuilding thereafter, but Aomori also celebrates ancient societies that settled here millennia ago. You'll be reminded of this prehistoric past at the 21st-century museum of modern art, as its architecture pays homage to the nearby excavations of ancient ruins. After exploring, relax at the caldera lakes and natural hot springs in the lush countryside.

DUTCH HARBOR, ALASKA

Located on Amaknak Island and linked via bridge to Unalaska Island, Dutch Harbor is a place of historical significance, stunning natural beauty and resilient people. Walk in the footsteps of the indigenous Aleut, or Unangan, people by following trails established thousands of years ago. The paths take you through swaths of wildflowers dotting green valleys from which rise volcanic peaks surrounded by the sea, a windswept land so pristine you will forget that signs of civilization are nearby. Even so, Russian fur traders and American armed forces did make their marks here. The U.S. established a naval base in 1940, and Dutch Harbor became a theater for World War II. While intriguing museums recall a turbulent past, today Dutch Harbor embraces the peaceful nature of its scenic surroundings and thrives as a fishing "village" that brings in the country's largest catch.

HAKODATE, JAPAN

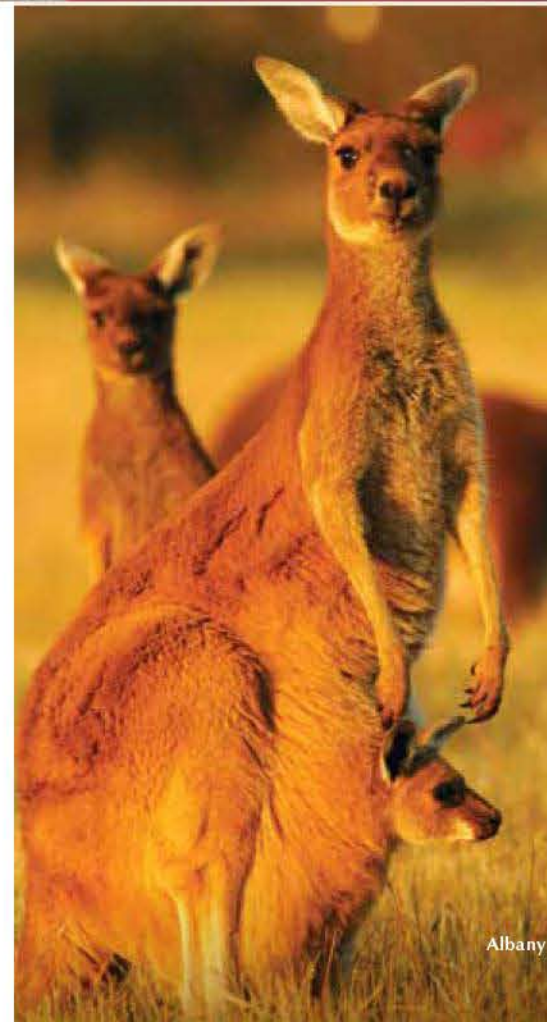

In 1854 Hakodate became Japan's first port to open to foreign trade as the country's era of isolationism came to an end. The resulting influx of traders and merchants from Russia, China and Western countries imprinted the city with a mélange of cultural styles that now distinguish Hakodate's unique atmosphere. Star-shaped Goryokaku Fort was designed in the European style – even as its purpose was to defend Japan from foreign imperialism – and is now flanked by thousands of native cherry trees. The Russian Orthodox Church stands just blocks from the Chinese Memorial Hall, and nearby you'll find traditional Japanese markets selling the signature Hakodate shio ramen, a salty noodle dish that is the city's specialty. Beef lovers can try the famously flavorful Hakodate Onuma beef, while overlooking scenic Lake Onuma.
